Note.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid.

Note.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid.

The periods and quantities of each delivery at those posts where they are not specified, will be, one-fourth let June, let September, let December, 1850, and let March, 1851.

The hogs of which the pork is packed to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds, excluding the feet, legs, ears, and snout. Side pieces may be substituted for the hams. The pork is to be first salted with Turk's Island salt, and then carefully packed with the same article, in pieces not exceeding eight pounds each.

When the packing has been completed, the contractor must furnish to this office a certificate from the packer that the pork has been so salted and packed. The pork is to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak barrels, full hooped; the beans and salt in barrels, and the soap and candles in strong boxes, of convenient size for transportation.

Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks. The provisions for St. Peter's and Fort Gaines must pass St. Louis for their ultimate destination, in the first week of April, 1850; and the stores for Fort Gaines must pass St. Peter's by the 1st June, 1850. A failure in this particular will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractors until they are deposited at such store-houses as may be designated by the agents of the Department. The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities of each delivery one-third subsequent to contract; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third subsequent to contract; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third subsequent to contract, on giving sixty days'
